

I understand the principle of that a Realtor would need consent to send a fax unsolicited, but having to obtain written consent after consent has been given seems unfair to me and the public. I am opposed to having obtain written consent of sending a fax pertaining to real estate. Thank you for your time. Paul D. Kelly, CAI